ACTIVITY:

A Stage Full of Stars

On 25th August 2025, the little stars of SANA Nursery and Primary School lit up the stage with charm and creativity during the Fancy Dress Competition. Conducted across all three sections of LKG, the event was a beautiful showcase of imagination, patriotism, and togetherness.

Our students proudly came dressed as their favourite fruits and vegetables such as carrots, mangoes, bottle gourd, apples, watermelon, pineapples, and bunches of grapes. Their bright, cheerful costumes spread the message of healthy eating in the most delightful way.

Alongside this, many little ones stepped into the roles of India's inspiring freedom fighters and national leaders, including Subramania Bharathiyar, Mahatma Gandhi, Nehru, Indira Gandhi, Abul Kalam Azad, Dr. B. R. Ambedkar, Dr. A. P. J. Abdul Kalam, Bakht Singh, Rani Lakshmi Bai, Begum Hazarat Mahal, and the show stealer of the day, MK Stalin.

What made the event even more special was the effort behind the costumes. Many of them were lovingly DIY-ed by parents and children together, turning preparation time into a moment of bonding and learning at home. From painted cardboard apples and pineapples to carefully stuck balloons of grapes outfits, every costume carried a story of teamwork, love, and creativity.

A Joyful Celebration

One by one, the children walked onto the stage with confidence and sparkle in their eyes, introducing themselves and speaking a few lines about their chosen character. The audience of teachers and classmates cheered enthusiastically, making each participant feel celebrated and valued.

The classroom turned into a vibrant stage of colours, voices, and childlike wonder, reminding everyone that learning is at its best when it is joyful and shared.

ADVANTAGES OF THE ACTIVITY:

The Fancy Dress Competition was much more than a performance; it was a meaningful learning experience that touched different aspects of development. Builds Confidence: Speaking before an audience encouraged courage and self-belief.

KEY BENEFITS:

- Develops Communication Skills: Children practiced dialogue delivery and self-expression.
- Promotes Cultural Awareness: Costumes of national leaders and freedom fighters instilled pride in India's heritage and values.
- Encourages Creativity: DIY costumes sparked imagination and artistry, both at home and school.
- Instils Healthy Habits: Dressing up as fruits and vegetables highlighted the importance of nutrition.
- Strengthens Parent Child Bonding: Working together on costumes created joyful learning moments at home.

SUBJECT INTEGRATED:

- Language Development: Vocabulary building, sentence formation, and expressive speech.
- Environmental Studies (EVS): Identifying fruits and vegetables, and learning about leaders who shaped our nation.
- Art and Craft: Costume-making fostered creativity, innovation, and design thinking.
- Social and Emotional Development: Confidence, public speaking, teamwork, and appreciation for cultural identity.

CONCLUSION:

The Fancy Dress Competition was a grand success. With their bright costumes, confident words, and radiant smiles, our students stole everyone's hearts. It was a memorable day that brought together fun, learning, and creativity showing how even the simplest activities can shape big lessons for young minds.

We are incredibly proud of our students for their participation and grateful to the parents for their support and creativity. The event left us all inspired, and we eagerly look forward to many more such moments where learning goes hand in hand with joy.
