English Fiesta Report: Celebrating the English Language with Zeal and Grandeur

Overview:

The English Fiesta has become synonymous with language promotion in an enriching and motivating environment for students. The event was conducted to showcase the language skills of students by promoting creativity, confidence, and effective communication. It was held separately for boys and girls. The selection process was a stringent one and consisted of elaborate grading pertaining to creativity, presentation, confidence, and effectiveness. The finals were conducted on July 26th for girls and July 27th for boys. The occasion was presided by Ms. Bobby Pullabhotla and Mr. Aadil Ibrahim for girls and boys respectively.

Events:

1. Extempore: Students were given topics on-the-spot, with very little time to ponder. The participants spoke well on various topics and gave good speeches.
2. Spin- A- Yarn: It was stories galore! A picture was shown to every team, and they were asked to spin a story for three minutes. The teams' imagination ran wild, and they came up with interesting fictional stories.
3. Team Debate: Live debate sessions were organized. The teams presented both arguments and counter arguments, keeping the spirit of debate alive. Topics were well-researched and presented convincingly.
4. Adzap: The competition tapped on the students' marketing and creative skills. Short and peppy advertisements were created and were presented well.

Event Description:

Selection Process: The selection process began more than a week before the final event. Students registered for the desired contest. The selection criteria for each competition were laid out after consultation with the concerned experts and students were instructed well accordingly. The selection process was smoothly conducted, ensuring fair judgement and unambiguity.

Day 1: The girls' event was conducted with much enthusiasm and joy. Students were eager to showcase their skills in various fields. The atmosphere was enriching and motivating for everyone.

Chief Guest (Girls' Event): The chief guest, Ms. Bobby Pullabhotla, a renowned Toastmaster, coach, and leadership trainer, graced the occasion with her humble presence and jovial mood.

Day 2: The boys' event was conducted with much zeal and energy as well. The students eagerly demonstrated their skills throughout the event and appeared joyful and motivated.

Chief Guest (Boys' Event): The chief guest, Mr. Aadil Ibrahim, a renowned Toastmaster, entrepreneur, and marketing strategist, graced the occasion with his powerful grading and motivation. He was impressed by the multi-talented participants and termed them as future heroes.

Final Event: The final event was marked by great enthusiasm of students, teachers, the chief guest, and the audience. Superior grading by the chief guests and continuous efforts undertaken by the teachers and the students, made the process very rewarding. Winners were announced in a charged atmosphere and all the participants were awarded with trophies and certificates.

Conclusion:

The English Fiesta was a grand success and was able to highlight hidden talents relevant to language and communication. The competition was filled with immense energy, enthusiasm and joy, making the students to ask for more. The fiesta served as a platform for the students to showcase their talents and skills which were recognized well by the judges. The presence of esteemed chief guests and their mode of assessment, greatly contributed to the success of the event.
